PARA 7: COMMISSION’S DECISION ON ELIGIBILITY OF CANDIDATES

Only preliminary scrutiny of the applications and other aspects will be undertaken before proceeding to the next stage of the recruitment and therefore, the acceptance of candidature will only be provisional. Candidates are advised to carefully go through the eligibility criteria prescribed for each post such as educational qualification, age, physical standards etc. and satisfy themselves that they are eligible for the posts, before applying. After such scrutiny a “Proposed Rejection / Ineligibility List” shall be published and hosted in the Commission’s website as well as in the Notice Board of the M.P.S.C Office/Cells. A candidate is allowed 15 days time to file representation against such proposed Rejection. Copies of supporting documents will be sought only from those candidates who qualify for the Personal Interview. When detailed scrutiny is finally undertaken, if any claim made in the application is not found substantiated the candidature will be cancelled and the Commission’s decision in this regard shall be final.

PARA 8: METHOD OF SELECTION

The final selection/recommendation of suitable candidates against the vacancies notified in this Advertisement shall be made by the Commission through any of the following processes.

1. Typing Speed, English Composition and Stenography Test, in recruitment to post of Typist and Stenographer (All Grades) as the case may be.
2. Screening Test followed by Personal Interview.
3. Written examination followed by Personal Interview.
4. (i) Preliminary Screening Test (ii) Main Examination (iii) Personal Interview.
5. Personal Interview only

Physical Efficiency Test (PET), wherever required and prescribed by the Service Rules shall be conducted by the Commission assisted by a Medical Board duly constituted for the purpose, in accordance with the norms/standards and such specification as prescribed under such Rules.

The Screening Test shall be applied /conducted by the Commission in respect of all recruitments to those posts where the method of selection/Syllabus has not been prescribed by the Service Rules. The objective of the test is to shortlist the number of eligible candidates in recruitments where the number of candidates is disproportionately large compared to the available vacancies, otherwise the selection of suitable candidates against the notified vacancies shall be made on the basis of personal interview. The decision to hold or not to hold the Screening Test in any such recruitment shall lie with the Commission.

Written Examination shall be mandatory in respect of recruitments to posts where the Service Rules has specifically prescribed the conduct of such examinations. In such cases, the subjects, syllabus, total marks and pattern of examination shall be as notified by the concerned Government Department under such Rules. However, the Commission may, at its discretion, decide to hold Preliminary Screening Test in these categories of recruitment when the number of candidates is disproportionately large compared to the notified vacancies and on the basis of such Preliminary Screening Test, the number of candidates who shall be called to appear for the Written Examination shall not be more than 10 (ten) times the number of declared vacancies.

Screening Tests or Preliminary Screening Tests, where decided to be held, shall be Multiple Choice OMR based Tests. Such Tests shall be held for 350 Marks, on:

- (i) General English – 100 Marks (of the standard of the Qualification prescribed for the post)
- (ii) General Awareness & Aptitude – 150 Marks
- (iii) Mathematics – 100 Marks (10th Standard)

On the result of such Screening Test/ Written Examination the Commission shall call such number of candidates as it may think appropriate to appear for the Personal Interviews. The principle/policy followed by the Commission is that the ratio of the number of candidates called for interview to the vacancies should be limited to 1:2 to 1:5. In recruitments involving very few posts the ratio can be raised.

PARA 9: DEBARMENT

- (a) Candidates should make sure of their eligibility for the post applied for and that the declaration made by them in the format of application regarding their eligibility is correct in all respects. Any candidate furnishing incorrect information or making false declaration regarding his/her eligibility at any stage or suppressing any information is liable TO BE DEBARRED FROM APPEARING FOR ANY OF THE EXAMINATIONS CONDUCTED BY THE COMMISSION, and summarily rejection of their candidature for this recruitment.
- (b) The Commission is vested with the constitutional duty of conducting recruitment and selection as per rules duly maintaining utmost secrecy and confidentially in this process and any attempt by anyone causing or likely to cause breach of this constitutional duty in such manner or by such action as to violate or likely to violate the fair practices followed and ensured by the Commission will be sufficient cause for rendering such questionable means as ground for debarment.
- (c) If any candidate is or has been found impersonating or procuring impersonation by any person or resorting to any other irregular or improper means in connection with his/her candidature for selection or obtaining support of candidature by any means, such a candidate may in addition to rendering himself/herself liable to criminal prosecution, will be liable to be debarred permanently from any exam or selection held by the Service Commissions in the country.
- (d) Canvassing Directly or Indirectly will Disqualify a candidate.
